Mr Bamford,

Thank you so very much for the generous donation of £10,900 received this week from The Worshipful Company of Actuaries following your Zoom event in July.

I know that our CEO, Keith Sinclair, enjoyed the evening and was pleased to have had the opportunity to share more information with your members about Brainwave Online, which is the virtual therapy service we now offer to help children with disabilities reach their potential.

Your donation could not have come at a more opportune time. Though we now provide the online service for families who prefer to keep shielding during the Covid-19 pandemic, last week we also reopened Brainwave's South West Centre in Bridgwater with strict health and safety measures in place.

Please do pass on our thanks and regards to Peter Crutchett and the other members of the Board.

With all good wishes for a safe and healthy summer.

Sincerely,

Jeremy Duxbury
